Hemingway Bar is a protected name at the institute for intellectual property for the Republic of Croatia, Slovenia, Serbia, Montenegro, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Macedonia, which stands for novelty and quality, ideas to which we give form and a good team which turn them into reality. In essence, everything is very simple and easy because we know what we want and we invest a lot of effort in developing the Hemingway Bar brand. The expansion of the brand in Croatia goes along with the quality we are developing through the school of barmen, Nekić Barology, and through the culture of food, drinks and cigars, alongside our clubbing scene.

We are unique by many standards; we pay special attention to the education of our personnel, the quality of their education and their treatment of guests. We have a large, carefully selected choice of drinks, beverages, wines and cocktails. Cocktails are our fetish which are created by the magical mind and elegant hands of one of the world's best barmen and mixologists, Marin Nekić, who will introduce you to the colourful world of cocktails thanks to his many years of experience and creativity.

We adapt the interior to a comfortable ambient with the possibility of normal communication between guests, all the time with an accent on quality of service. One of the very important and unavoidable contents is definitely music to which we at Hemingway Bar pay a lot of attention because it is also one of the reasons why we have guests who always happily come back. Achievements

Over the years, attention paid to quality has remained the same and what has changed is the result of multiple components based on effective efforts and the monitoring of market trends, as well as preferences of constant and potential guests as the main links of the overall concept. Over the years, Hemingway gained an enviable number of satisfied clients and guests, which keeps on growing, and the quality of the clubbing scene in all larger areas of the country has been raised. Moreover, cooperation with many leading Croatian companies from almost all market areas has been arranged.

History

Hemingway Bar was founded back in 2000 in Opatija with the first example of this saga of success as the product of owner Mario Kovačević who wished to create a recognisable and high-quality brand. The primary goal was to create a club based on an interesting and original story, therefore the character of Ernest Hemingway was the idea, considering his many journeys and his bohemian lifestyle.

Product

The bars' interiors are a blend of the past, present and future with comfortable interior and a warm, friendly atmosphere, just like in the living room at your best friends home, relaxed and elegant...

For the bars' interior design, furniture and lighting in accordance with world trends were used.

One of the very important links is the music to which Hemingway Bar pays a lot of attention, considering that it is one of the reasons why everybody always comes back. The music the bars offer is truly one-of-a-kind, since they have the best international sources, a collection based on the modern clubbing scene with the best DJs, led by one of the best.

Croatian DJs and producers. Hemingway Bars offer something for everybody, from R&B music, House, Jazz, to urban domestic music.

In 2009, Hemingway Bar issued its first compilation called HOUSE YOUR SOUL, which got its name after Joe2 Shine's popular music programme of the same name. It was a long-prepared project that rendered one of the best clubbing compilations in Croatia both because of the production team and because of celebrity DJs such as DONIS, Todd Williams, David Penn, Chris Lake and others who are on the compilation.

Recent Developments

Stimulated with the success of the existing Hemingway Bars and led by the wish for expansion to the beautiful Dalmatian region of Croatia, a Hemingway Bar was opened in 2008 in the very heart of Dalmatia - in Split.

In 2009, Hemingway Bar received an official license for the organisation of Fashion TV parties - the most prestigious fashion events in the world in collaboration with FTV, making Hemingway Bar the only club in Croatia with the said privilege. The events have already taken place in Hemingway Bars Split, Opatija and Zagreb in cooperation with leading fashion brands.

Promotion

Hemingway Bar has fully adapted to the market and the wishes of its guests. Birthdays, promotions, presentations, celebrations, business events or just informal gatherings... numerous parties... Hemingway bars are famous for this too, as well as unpredictable and original, whether it be morning or evening events. Many have already given themselves over to Hemingway's expert team and have enjoyed the offer of Hemingway Bar, relaxed and with no care in the world. Hemingway Bar is present at numerous important sports and fashion events, from which the Snow Queen Trophy and Fashion Week stand out. It also often participates in the organisation of charity events. Hemingway Bar's most important promotion is its guests. A satisfied guest is the best guest, his or her "mouth to mouth" recommendation is the best advertisement and that is the Bar's main goal. Because, when guests come back, it means that the team's efforts were fruitful, just as it wished.

Brand Values

Hospitality is our primary goal. It is the lifestyle. Hemingway Bar offers its guests, open for all those who want to enjoy life, have good fun and first and foremost, enjoy its excellent service. For the team in Hemingway everybody is a celebrity and they want to offer the maximum of attention to everyone. Hemingway Bar has set a standard with which it offers its guests top of the line service. The staff offers advice to guests in choosing their beverages without imposing on their privacy. Hemingway Bar has set a standard for customer care service with which it follows guests through life. Hemingway Bar's value is also cocktails, which are the bar's fetish. And a cocktail is like a first-rate meal - a composition of flavours, colours and scents that only in the ideal harmony of elements of preparation becomes something more than a simple beverage. Do not overdo it with the cocktails, but enjoy each sip. And of course, drink carefully and responsibly.
